Preview Model Data

You can preview model data via the Model properties panel. From here, you can do the following:

- View and drill down through the dimensions and metrics your model contains at a high level; for example, you can view all dimensions in the model as well as their hierarchies and levels.
- Search for specific objects within your model.

To access the Model properties panel, open a model from the Repo Browser.