Repo Browser
The Repo Browser enables you to explore your AtScale-connected Git repositories.

From here, you can do the following:

- Change the Git repository and branch you're working on.
- Start the deployment process for the current respository using the Deploy button.
- Navigate the objects available in your workspace.
- Open individual objects for viewing or editing.
- Duplicate and delete objects.