

Managing Projects

An AtScale project is a container for one or more AtScale virtual cubes, the datasets the cubes are based on, and the perspectives that are based on those cubes. You can manage projects in the Projects section in the Design Studio.

Using Projects

For details on how to create an AtScale project and manage and navigate the virtual cubes within a project, see the following links:

- About Projects
- About Folders
- Creating Projects
- About the Project Library
- Add a New Cube to a Project
- Duplicate a Cube in a Project
- Manage Project Snapshots and Versions
- Delete a Project